Dear Fearless:

Just a note to express a sincere "thank you" for all the hospitality and help in getting my deer off the mountain during my recent hunt. It was good to see you and Jim after so many years. As a token of my appreciation, I wanted to send you a book. I looked everywhere for a manual on the correct procedure on how to "discipline" your horse and not suffer physical consequences. Unfortunately, only one title, "How To Kick Your Ass & Not Lose Your Foot" was in print, but sold out. So I've enclosed a check in the hopes you might find an equally appropriate book for your library.

Once again, thank you for putting Bob, Scott and me up for the night, the good food and conversation and for the assistance in packing the deer out. Hope to run into you while visiting Patt and Bob in Elko.

Best Regards,

David L. Schuster
